Bartech Group Recognized By Eaton as a Premier Supplier Award Winner

March 22, 2010, LIVONIA — Billing and managing $1.5 billion in professional staffing, workforce management and consulting expenditures on behalf of its customers, The Bartech Group was recently honored with the prestigious Eaton Premier Supplier Award. Diversified industrial manufacturer Eaton Corporation honored 40 premier suppliers as part of the Company's supplier recognition program. Bartech is part of an elite group which represents the top 0.5% of Eaton's global supply base. This is the fifth year that Eaton has recognized a select group of its global suppliers with this coveted award with Bartech receiving the award each year.

"These suppliers consistently delivered quality products that created value for our customers," said Craig Reed, Senior Vice President, Supply Chain Management. "We appreciate their work in 2009, congratulate them on this well deserved recognition and look forward to working with them to identify innovative new ways to meet our customers' needs."

Jon E. Barfield, Chairman and President of The Bartech Group, commented, "We are honored to be recognized again as a supplier that delivers superior quality, among Eaton's thousands of suppliers worldwide. This award is a testament to our tradition of excellence. We remain committed to raising the bar on our performance – to bring talent solutions that add value to our customers, enabling them to win in an increasingly challenging and dynamic economic environment."
